Wednesday - 22 June 1977

1. [ ] LIAISON I received a call from Debra, in the office of Representative Jerry M. Patterson (D., Calif.), concerning the CIA tours. I told her that nothing had been confirmed yet but hopefully the tours would begin in late August and we would put her name on a list and would be back in touch as soon as we had firm information.

2. [ ] LIAISON Richard Rubelson, of Senator Wendell Anderson's (D., Minn.) office, called to request one copy of the Agency publication entitled, "Potential Implications of Trends in World Population, Food Production, and Climate." The publication was forwarded to him.

3. [ ] LIAISON Ken Vincolese, in the office of Representative Philip Crane (R., Ill.), called requesting information on the Agency tour program. I told him that schedule was not yet firm and agreed to call him when we had a definite starting date.

5. [ ] BRIEFINGS Talked with Ruth, in the office of Representative Don Fuqua (D., Fla.), and Beverly, in the office of Representative Walter Flowers (D., Ala.), and confirmed 27 July at 8:00 a.m. for the two Congressmen to have breakfast with the Director.

I also talked with Charlotte, in the office of Representative Mike McCormack (D., Wash.), and confirmed 21 July at 8:00 a.m. for Mr. McCormack to have breakfast with the Director.

11. [ ] BRIEFING Accompanied [ ]
Congressional Support Officer, and [ ] ORPA, to a briefing of House Minority Leader, John Rhodes (R., Ariz), on the current situation in Africa. (See [ ] Memorandum for the Record.)

I took this opportunity to tell Mr. Rhodes that I would like very much to talk with him and/or one of his staff members (Mr. Rhodes mentioned Dennis Taylor) about current items of mutual interest, such as the establishment of a House select committee on intelligence, our relationships with various committees on the KCIA matter and related subjects. Mr. Rhodes said he would like very much to do this and I asked his secretary to arrange a suitable time on his calendar. Mr. Rhodes commented that House Speaker, Thomas O'Neill (D., Mass.), had not given him a definite time frame for bringing up the subject of a select committee but Mr. O'Neill said it would be soon. Mr. Rhodes is skeptical about this happening any time before the July 4th recess. He also commented that he is going to have problems fighting the political ratio issue on membership on the committee in the House. I told him that he could certainly use the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence as a precedent and I also noted that Chairman Daniel Inouye (D., Hawaii) intends to reduce the number of Senate Select Committee members to 13 or less in the next year or two.

12. [ ] LIAISON In the absence of Mike O'Neil, in the office of Representative Edward Boland (D., Mass.), I talked with John O'Donnell about the subject of a select committee resolution. I told O'Donnell that as he probably knew, [ ] had been in touch with O'Neil (who was out of town this week) about the subject and had provided him with some information and I just wanted to be sure that we were helpful to Mr. Boland's interest in this matter. O'Donnell said we had been most helpful and in response to my offer said they would call for anything further needed. I specifically referred to the House Rule XI problem and restrictive reporting under the Hughes/Ryan amendment. O'Donnell was familiar with both of these.

13. [ ] LIAISON Dropped by to see Norvill Jones, Chief of Staff, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, to check further with him on the subject of the distribution of copies of the Director's testimony of 20 June on Korea to DOD and the Department of State. Jones said he was very reluctant to establish a precedent by sending copies to other departments and I told him I understood completely. He confirmed that the transcript was available to DOD and State representatives for review in the Committee's offices and noted that both DOD and State had representatives present at the briefing. I did get Jones' agreement, however, that we would convey to appropriate people copies of the Director's remarks as they were given to the Committee. I noted that the Director did not read his prepared text as such (so obviously we would have to take his prepared remarks from the transcript. Jones said he had no objection to this).

Jones mentioned that Senator Charles Percy (R., Ill.) had talked with him about his request for information on the attitudes of various countries on the prospect of withdrawal of U.S. troops from Korea. The Senator wanted to be sure we were checking on his request. I said I was sure we were but as indicated at the hearing, this might involve going out for information of this sort, if it was not already available. In any event, I told Jones we would provide them with such information we have and not delay submission of that material because of the need of supplementary information. (Later in the morning, Scott Cohen, Executive Assistant to Senator Percy, called me on the same subject and I told him what I had said to Jones.)

Jones also brought up the subject of Case Act reports. I told him that we had talked with the Director recently about this and that we were as anxious to make the reports at this point in time as the Committee was to receive them. I said Tony Lapham, General Counsel, was making one last contact with the White House on this and we hoped to have the reports ready very shortly.

14. [ ] LIAISON Ralph Preston and Charles Snodgrass, House Appropriations Committee staff, called to say that Chairman George Mahon (D., Texas) had been successful in warding off amendments which had been proposed by Representative Bill Burlison (D., Mo.) in the full Committee mark-up of the Defense Appropriation bill although they had admonition against assassination in the Committee report. They said they were including the language of Executive Order 11905. In response to my question, they said that they did not have to cut the amount of the Contingency Reserve in order to retain that fund. They went on to say, however, that Mr. Burlison may well press for an assassination amendment on the floor of the House when the bill comes up on Friday. [ ]

15. [ ] LIAISON The Director called to say that he had talked with Senator Edward Kennedy (D., Mass.) who said he was interested in getting a briefing on the sensitive areas on which the Director had offered additional information at the briefing of the Subcommittee on Criminal Laws and Procedures, Senate Judiciary Committee, on 14 June. The Senator said it was not necessary for the Director to come personally to brief him, but the Director told me he would like to do this if at all possible. The Senator also said he does want a paper on the CIA/FBI matter but is more interested in the policy aspects rather than the technological ones. I told the Director I would get in touch with [ ] SA-D/DCI/IC, and Tony Lapham, General Counsel, to draft such a statement.

[ ] LIAISON Had numerous conversations with Richard Kaufman, General Counsel, Joint Economic Committee, concerning the transmittal of the Director's prepared statement (which we got to him in two parts late this afternoon) and the attendance of personal staff members at tomorrow's hearing. Kaufman advised that he had consulted with Chairman William Proxmire (D., Wis.) and no personal staffers will be permitted to sit in.

18. [ ] LIAISON Took a message for Mr. Cary from Col. Steven Harrick, DOD, who said that Norvill Jones, Chief of Staff, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, told him the Committee would not be providing copies of the Director's testimony before that Committee on 20 June to any departments or agencies. The meeting is set for 9:30 a.m., 24 June, in the Senator's office.

24. [ ] BRIEFING Bruce Van Voorst, in the office of Senator Dick Clark (D., Iowa), requested a briefing for the Senator on Soviet strategic missiles and the BACKFIRE Bomber. Van Voorst asked if he could sit in and I explained that because of the compartmented level of the information, this would not be possible which satisfied Van Voorst. The briefing was set for 28 June, at 2:30 p.m.

She explained that Agency comments were not necessary since the testimony concerns only the private sector. Further, she noted that the Civil Service Commission will be testifying later on U.S. Government retirement programs and will address the concerned agencies such as ours that require lower mandatory age retirements for effective management. 11. [ ] BRIEFING Richard Kaufman, General Counsel of the Joint Economic Subcommittee on Priorities and Economy in Government, said that Subcommittee Chairman William Proxmire (D., Wis.), would like after the 23 June DCI briefing of the Subcommittee that something be put out for publication before the final, unclassified version of the hearing is published, and noted the large demand for the results of the DCI's briefing in the past. He also indicated he would like to see a copy of the DCI's statement sometime today. I said I would check. I called [ ] DIA, who said that neither Senator Proxmire's personal staffer, Ron Tammen, nor Senator Orrin Hatch's (R., Utah) personal staffer, Craig Roberts, had compartmented clearances should they ask to sit in on the briefing. June Le Gates, of the Department of Defense, reported that the suggested Alderson Reporting Service transcribers for the briefing, Albert La France and Robert Thomas, had only Top Secret clearances. At [ ] suggestion, I called the Subcommittee security man, Mark Borchelt, and suggested he try to get Ann Horowitz, of Alderson, as transcriber, since we know she has the requisite clearances. Borchelt later called back to say Horowitz would do the job. The office of Col. Steve Harrick, Department of Defense, reported that compartmented clearances were being granted to Dick Kaufman, of the Committee, and Minority Staff Chief, George Krumbhaar, and they were to be briefed and sworn in today. At George Cary's request, I advised Kaufman that the DCI's statement was being rewritten but could be available for him to read late in the afternoon, to be brought back by courier for storage at Headquarters thereafter; that was acceptable to Kaufman. I advised Krumbhaar of this procedure and asked him to look at Kaufman's copy; he said he would not be in the office late enough to do so, but would see the statement just before the briefing on 23 June. Kaufman agreed that Craig Roberts be discouraged from sitting in, because he is a personal staffer. I called Roberts, who immediately accepted our problem in having personal staffers sit in, and agreed not to ask to do so.
